

Visalia, CA – Seeking Emergency Medicine Residency Academic Chair

We are a physician partnership dedicated to providing the best practice locations and management support for physicians, physician assistants, and nurse practitioners. CEP America: where your voice counts.

The Opportunity

- Seeking Board Eligible/Certified Emergency Medicine physicians for Academic Chair with previous experience as program or associate program director
- Duties will include:
 - Faculty Development
 - Training and core competencies
 - Advancing interest in graduate medical education
 - Helping establish fellowship programs
 - Strategic planning
 - Clinical program development
- Applicant only. No agencies please.

The Program

Kaweah Delta Medical Center Emergency Medicine Residency – Visalia, California

- Kaweah Delta is an academic affiliate with UC Irvine and has 5 residency programs: EM, FM, Psychiatry, General Surgery and Transitional Year. The site also trains medical students, PA/NP students, and a scholar program for PAs
- Kaweah offers the combination of an esteemed academic position with the benefits of community medicine (lifestyle, income potential, etc)
- CEP America affords providers access to exceptional practice management resources for leadership development, patient satisfaction, and other drivers of a successful practice
- Kaweah is one of the largest regional referral centers for an array of services in the Central Valley
- The ED is a designated trauma facility that sees over 90,000 patients each year, and serves as a Base Station for a four county EMS system

The Community

- A picturesque community with stunning landscapes and excellent cost of living
- Incredible outdoor activities (hiking, world-class fishing, mountain biking, camping, skiing), and much more!
- Centrally located in California which is within a few hours of Monterey, Yosemite, Kings Canyon, Sequoia National Forest, San Francisco, and Los Angeles

To learn more about this and other exciting opportunities, please visit careers.cepamerica.com or call toll free at 800.842.2619